

I'll Do You 1000 (Times)

Daddy Jim Headquarters

[Verse 1]

Stepped into the room and there you were
Silver strands, purple eyes see right through Saiyan blood hot, you got me standing still Race of gods girl and you bending my will
They call me John but baby that ain't it
Keep it a thousand, that's the one that fits
Trained against the legends, battle scars
Then I saw you, oh my stars

[Chorus]

I'll do you a thousand
How about a thousand times?
Girl I'll do you a thousand
Every single night

[Verse 2]

Divine blood, I see it when you walk
Cat eyes golden, don't even need to talk
Name like Rose, everything divine
Shake the cosmos, girl but you shaking mine
Every fight I fought just led me here
Thousand years of waiting, now you're near

[Chorus 2]

I'll do you a thousand
You want it a thousand times, baby?
Girl I'll do you a thousand
Mmm, all through the night
Come closer

[Bridge]

Destruction in your veins but you heal what's broken
Rose, you the sweetest words I've spoken
Crossed the ages just to hold you tight
Loving you a thousand times, every night

[Final Chorus]

I'll do you a thousand
A thousand times and then some more
Girl I'll do you a thousand
You ain't ready for a thousand more
I'll do you a thousand
Oh, a thousand, baby
A thousand times, ooh
