

Monkey Tail Meets Sailor Fists (Who Wins?)

Daddy Jim Headquarters

[Verse 1]

Super Saiyan golden hair blazing through the void
She commands the Silver Crystal, planets get destroyed
Kamehameha waves could crack the universe in half
Moon Tiara Magic cuts through any villain's path

[Chorus]

Who wins when these titans converge?
Zenkai boosts or a lunar purge?
Tell me who would own the throne
When they're fighting for their home
Gravity training, guardian cats
Moon princess with the killing stats
Who wins, who wins, the debate persists
When monkey tails meet sailor fists
Who wins, who wins, the debate persists
When monkey tails meet sailor fists
Who wins, who wins, the debate persists
When monkey tails meet sailor fists

[Verse 2]

Spirit Bomb gathering energy from galaxies distant
Moon Healing Escalation purifies in an instant
Fusion dance could double up his devastating strength
Her sailor guardians amplify her power to any length

[Final Chorus]

No winner when these titans converge
Just different ways to save and purge
Both would always own their throne
Both would die to save their home
Different paths, same devotion shown
Their legacy's the greatest gift we've known
Who wins, who wins, the debate persists
When monkey tails meet sailor fists
