

Sharing 18 (Krillin Don't Know)

Daddy Jim Headquarters

[Verse 1]

Goku used Instant Transmission to her side of town
Krillin sensed the ki but he couldn't track it down
She said she hit the Hyperbolic Chamber late
Came back a whole day older, hair undone, he said "you look great"
Tossed a Senzu Bean, she popped it with a grin
Kissed him on the forehead, then she slid right out again

[Pre-Chorus]

They run her through the car wash, get the shine back right
Wipe the memory drive and send her on her way
Chrome so clean you'd think she just came off the line
Back to Krillin's door and everything is fine

[Chorus]

Sharing Eighteen (pass her round)
Sharing Eighteen (whole squad now)
Washed and detailed, not a scratch to be found (factory fresh)
Sharing Eighteen, Krillin don't know

[Verse 2]

Vegeta in the gravity room, three hundred times the weight
"Androids kneel before a prince," she said "I'm never late"
Poh-Poh got her Wednesdays up on Kami's Lookout floor
Buffed her like the palace tiles till every panel gleamed for more
Then they put her in the dishwasher on sanitize
Sent her back to Krillin with that factory shine in her eyes

[Chorus]

Sharing Eighteen (pass her round)
Sharing Eighteen (whole squad now)
Washed and detailed, not a scratch to be found (spotless)
Sharing Eighteen, Krillin don't know (clueless)

[Verse 3]

Krillin saving up for rings, planning something sweet
She got Destructo Discs for him and seven other receipts
Wished upon the Dragon Balls to keep her by his side
Shenron laughed and said "she everybody's ride"

[Final Chorus]

Sharing Eighteen (one more time now)
Sharing Eighteen (whole squad, every town)
Washed and detailed, not a scratch to be found (factory fresh, baby)
Sharing Eighteen, Krillin don't know (poor Krillin, never knows)
