

Why Is Chiaotzu Always Dead?

Daddy Jim Headquarters

[Verse 1]

Yeah, back on Snake Way again (uh)
King Yemma said "boy, not you again" (no way)
Got the halo on speed dial (true)
Phone ringing every other while
Tien down here calling his name
Answer keep coming back the same
Check the obit, check the page
Same little man, same little stage

[Pre-Chorus]

Three confirmed in the body count (count it)
Self-destruct didn't even bounce
Nappa walked away without a scratch
Still no way to bring him back, oh

[Chorus]

Why is Chiaotzu always dead? (yeah, yeah)
Got a season pass to the afterlife (afterlife)
Halo floatin' over best friend's head (head, head)
Tien be cryin' overtime (overtime)
Come back home, Chiaotzu, tonight (come back home)
Why is Chiaotzu always dead?

[Verse 2]

King Piccolo zapped him first (zap)
Mid-wish blast, that's the original curse
Boy come back, then he gone again
Kid Buu Planet Burst hit the end
Earth split open, no funeral home
Sayonara, that's a one-way road

[Chorus 2]

Why is Chiaotzu always dead? (always, always)
Got a season pass to the afterlife (afterlife, ay)
Halo floatin' over best friend's head (head, head)
Tien be cryin' overtime (cryin' overtime)
Come back home, Chiaotzu, tonight (come back home)
Why is Chiaotzu always dead?

[Bridge]

Tien out here training for two
Empty mat where the little man flew
Loved him like a brother, lost a song
Hope the next wish gonna bring him along

[Final Chorus]

Why is Chiaotzu always dead? (oh, always, always)
Got a season pass to the afterlife (afterlife, yeah)
Halo floatin' over best friend's head (yeah, head)
Tien be cryin' overtime (overtime, every time)
Come back home, Chiaotzu, tonight (come back home, come home)
Why is Chiaotzu always dead?
(Chiaotzu, Chiaotzu, where you at?)
